- 1 Santa Monica Beach - The world famous 3.5-mile Santa Monica Beach. Along the strand people jog, bike, skate, play chess or volleyball, build sand castles, or simply watch the waves.
- 2 Santa Monica Pier - This pier is over 100 years old. Watch the sunset from the top of a ferris wheel, ride a roller coaster, or have lobster while you dine at an ocean view restaurant.
- 3 Santa Monica Place - Adjacent to the 3rd Street Promenade is an ocean-view shopping mall, designed by world-renowned architect Frank O. Gehry, with over 140 stores to shop.
- 4 Santa Monica Market - On Arizona Between Second & Third Streets. Twice weekly, on Wednesdays between 9am and 2pm and on Saturdays between 8:30am and 2pm. 2-1/2 blocks of vendors sell fresh flowers, produce, olives, dried fruit, sprouts and pesto, all grown in California. Saturday's Market features exclusively organic produce.
- 5 3rd Street Promenade Shopping - An open-air pedestrian promenade with cafés, bookstores, cinemas, fashion boutiques, and novelty shops.
- 6 Montana Avenue - In the midst of Santa Monica's prominent residential area, you'll find 130 sophisticated, upscale, one-of-a-kind shops that cater to elegant taste in fashion for men, women, children and the home. This is a favored spot to sight celebrities who live nearby and frequent the world-class stores and 19 restaurants along this tree-lined boulevard.
- 7 Main Street - Twelve-blocks long, Main Street combines beach casualness with a hip, eclectic collection of galleries, jewelry and craft shops, design studios and antique collections accented by cafés, coffeehouses, and restaurants just 2 blocks from the ocean.
- 8 Bergamot Station - The largest single concentration of galleries in Santa Monica, Bergamot Station is a complex of rehabilitated warehouses located on the site of a historic trolley depot at 2525 Michigan Avenue. www.bergamotstation.com
